Engineering Software License Agreement Correction

The Engineering Software License Agreement has been amended to include a special provision that was inadvertently omitted. A complete copy of the revised license agreement can be found included with the order forms at our support website <http://penndot.engrprograms.com>.

Item c under the Warranty and Special Provisions clause was reinserted to reflect the original text of the agreement approved by the State Attorney General's Office on January 13, 1997. Additionally, the agreement's clauses were renumbered to begin at 1.

Warranty and Special Provision Item c reads: "THE DEPARTMENT DOES NOT WARRANT OR GUARANTEE THE RELIABILITY OF THE SOFTWARE AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR SOUND ENGINEERING JUDGEMENT. "

Licensees of PENNDOT's engineering software issued after June 20, 2005 must agree to the terms of this revised license agreement.

Please direct any questions concerning the above to:
