PAPier

No. 012
August 6, 2004

Applicability of previously issued e-Notifications since the release of PAPier Version 1.2

It has come to our attention that several of the previously distributed e-Notifications related to PAPier are no longer applicable since they have been incorporated in PAPier Version 1.2.

The following PAPier e-Notifications are no longer applicable: 001, 002, 003, 005, 008, 009 and 010.

PAPier e-Notification 006 is partially applicable. Issues 1 and 4 still apply, while issues 2 and 3 have been corrected.

PAPier e-Notifications 004 and 007 are still fully applicable.

In the future, e-Notifications announcing the release of a new program version will include a list of previously distributed e-Notifications that have been addressed or corrected by the new version. The e-Notification archive list on our support website, <http://penndot.engrprograms.com/home>, will now indicate which e-Notifications are still applicable.

Please direct any questions concerning the above to:
